January 8, 2009 - Cincinnati, Ohio – The Pet Butler North Cincinnati franchise in the Cincinnati area has acquired DogMasters, LLC. Pet Butler is the nation's leading pet waste cleanup and removal service. The franchise owned by Kathleen Simpson, will extend their service areas to include the new customers from this acquisition.

"This opportunity to begin serving DogMasters' previous clients has significantly increased Pet Butler's footprint in the greater Cincinnati area, even to the point of hiring additional technicians," said Kathleen Simpson.

Pet Butler proudly bills itself as "#1 in the '#2' business." The company charges a small per-visit fee for its technicians to collect dog and cat waste, carry it away, and dispose of it properly. Whether in yards or in public spaces, accumulated domestic animal waste can ruin lawns and present a significant source of water pollution.

"Owning my own Pet Butler franchise has been a real kick in the pants. It's kind of like being a kid again. This purchase will allow many local dog owners to continue enjoying their safe, clean, attractive yards. These new customers will also aid in expanding Pet Butler's reach within our local communities," said Kathleen.

Pet Butler will continue to serve all residential and commercial properties located in northern Cincinnati including all of Warren County, Fairfield, Milford, Liberty Township, Loveland, West Chester and many other areas.

About Pet Butler
