Local resident scoops nearly three quarters of a million piles in two years

By Rebekah Wolf

With accolades from her Pet Butler associates, Sandy Aaron of Gilbert is celebrating two years of scooping poop, achieving milestones, and volunteering time and money along the way.

"I am so incredibly proud to work with Sandy," says Matt "Red" Boswell, founder and chief excrement officer of Pet Butler Franchise Services. "She has one of the largest commercial Pet Butler businesses in the country-providing services to several thousand Phoenix-area apartment, condo, and homeowner association residents each week. Most importantly, Aaron gives back to our organization as well as her local community in so many wonderful ways."

The network administrator turned franchise owner was drawn to the poop-scooping business for its ethics and core values. Aaron donates cleanup services, gift certificates, and gift baskets to fundraising events like Beaglefest, Chandler Woolstock, and Petsmart Charities Petwalk.

"I have never loved my job as much as I have these past two and a half years," Aaron says. "This is the most fun,
